Forecast For Northwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Friday 17 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and cloudy, odd sunnier spell across the north.

Today:
Remaining settled on Friday, any mist or fog slow to lift, leaving most places cloudy all day but brighter spells developing here and there. Temperatures down a little on recent days. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry and cloudy night for most, but where skies clear patchy fog will form giving poor driving conditions in places. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloudy and dry for most, any mist and fog slow to lift into low cloud during the morning, temperatures down a notch on Friday's. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Largely settled Sunday and into the new week, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells. Continued risk of fog and frost under overnight cloud breaks. Gradually turning colder.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.